

I am sad to see that our government is taking away our first amendment rights to freedom of expression based solely on the comments of a few. Since when did the minority start to decide for the majority what is acceptable and what isn't? This wave of "indecentcy" legislation is moving too fast, people will not stand for it, nor should they. Hopefully this will incite the masses to unite and let their voices be heard, making it loud and clear once and for all that the "religious right" has no place in government.
